2021-2022 Legislative Voting Records

During campaign season, candidates take the opportunity to “talk-the-talk,” but when the legislature meets, we expect our elected officials to “walk-the-walk.” Some live up to expectations, others not so much. Once again, AzCDL has tallied up the performance of our Senators and Representatives so you can make informed decisions come election day. Below are descriptions of the bills we counted, with the results following on pages 2 and 3.

Ashley Hlebinsky. An historian and former curator of the Cody Firearms Museum, Ashley testified before the Senate Judiciary's Subcommittee on the Constitution, in a hearing titled: Stop Gun Violence: Ghost Guns.

Holly Sullivan. President of the Connecticut Citizens Defense League, Holly testified on the 2022 the Jackson-Elias Domestic Violence Survivor Protection Act, giving women who are pro self-defense a voice in the conversation.

Theresa Inacker. Communications Director and Trustee for the Coalition of New Jersey Firearm Owners, Theresa has testified before the New Jersey state legislature regarding a multitude of bills and is a writer and contributor to The Truth About Guns.

Lauren Snyder. Active in the AZLP and DC Project, she recently testified at the AZ Legislature causing Senator Lupe Contreras to famously state, "[If you are so afraid] stay at home behind closed doors".

Let George Do It, Right?

If you love that AzCDL is busy protecting your rights 24/7, it's time to volunteer and be a part of our mission

Most of us remember when and where we joined AzCDL: we went to a gun show, we saw that big blue and white banner, we walked over to satisfy our curiosity. What's this "Protecting Your Freedom" thing all about? There sat an older guy, a stack of newsletters—much like this one—some other literature and a pile of sharp looking Arizona flag-themed stickers.

Maybe you spoke to that guy, asked enough questions to determine the organization was not only 'on the level', it was probably the best chance of maintaining your right to keep and bear arms at the state level, and hold up a flashing red light to infringements at the national level.

Maybe you still come by the table to pick up a new T-shirt, or a bumper sticker, or just to shoot the bull with whomever is manning the table.

But wait—this time there is no AzCDL table at the show. The familiar faces you've seen for years weren't at the last show.

It turns out that, for the most part, the same people have been manning the same tables for almost two decades, and they're tired and burned out. In some cases they've shuffled off this mortal coil. It's time for a changing of the guard, so to speak.

Do you think AzCDL has done a good job over the past 17 legislative sessions? Do you think, in a State with over a million gun owners, we should be content with a membership of barely two percent of that total?

If you're a member who believes in what we've been doing—damned successfully—for the past seventeen years, if you have a few hours on a Saturday or Sunday and think 'George,' who's been carrying our tables for what seems a lifetime, could use a break, then VOLUNTEER!

Step up! Whatever your age, gender, ethnicity or the size of your gun safe, we need your help. Think about how much others like you would like to talk to someone just like you. There are people who want to take your rights away, no matter what you look like.

If you like talking to like-minded people, if you like gun shows, if you think your right to keep and bear arms is worth defending, contact Duke at AmericanIcon@cox.net – and we'll train you for free!
